Ski tours, your own strength takes you to the top

Once you get to the top by virtue of your own strength on skis and furs you will enjoy a breathtaking panorama off the beaten track. Your safety and enjoyment is our utmost priority and our guides will strive to satisfy your individual needs. We intend to make your vacation an unforgettable experience! We will teach you how to apply the correct techniques to enjoy the beauty of untouched nature.

Equipment:

Prerequisites include:

Skis with appropriate ski tour binding and ski tour shoes. Avalanche transceiver, sensor and shovel are obligatory when going on a ski tour. We recommend carrying an avalanche airbag and a helmet. In case you would like to rent or buy equipment we would be more than happy to advise you on which material to buy. Please mention it while making a booking.

Prices:

1-3 people 300.- €
Additional days 280.- €
For every additional person 30.- €
Security package: 60.- € (avalanche transceiver, shovel, probe, ABS backpack)
All tours can- according to your desires and ability- take place in the entire Kitzbühel Alps region.

Bookings:

Please make sure that all bookings are made in time as we are usually fully booked relatively early. This way everything can be organized to your optimal satisfaction.

Meeting point:

At the agreed upon time and place

Number of participants:

Max. 8 people per ski instructor

Service

All operations and organization are undertaken by trained ski instructors holding a diploma in their field. All costs covering your journey, your stay and catering will have to be covered by you.

Prerequisites

The ability to ski on different terrains depending on the tour is necessary.

To bring along:

The appropriate gear is essential. It would be best to wear active breathing apparel so any developing dampness can be pressed towards the outside so the body remains dry. The 'onion system' has proven to be quite successful over time. These are different layers of clothing that can be taken of and put on very easily at all times.

Insurance:

You will be accompanied by well trained skiing instructors holding a diploma in their field. If their instructions are followed there is a very low risk of being involved in an accident. You are required to have a valid health insurance and insurance for all accidents for any eventualities.

Operating schedule Infos:

Please call us a day before between 16:00 and 18:00 to confirm the meeting point. Hotline: +43 664 390 00 90

Annulations:

Please observe our annulations terms under Snowsports Kitzbühel general terms and conditions.
